

All students will be eligible to be exempt from any final exam if they meet one of the following criteria

Semester long classes

Option 1

The student will have an A average in the class for the semester/year

Student will have no more than 7 absences, tardies, or early dismissals from an individual class (excused or unexcused)

Note – if the student is on a field trip – the day does NOT count into the absences for exemption.

Note – If the student is tardy to class due to another teacher holding them (must have a pass) or a bus coming in late, it does not count against them.

Teachers will be responsible for maintaining accurate period attendance.

Option 2

The student will have a B average in the class for the semester/year

Student will have no more than 4 absences, tardies, or early dismissals from an individual class (excused or unexcused)

Note – if the student is on a field trip – the day does NOT count into the absences for exemption.

Note – If the student is tardy to class due to another teacher holding them (must have a pass) or a bus coming in late, it does not count against them.

Teachers will be responsible for maintaining accurate period attendance.

Yearlong classes

Option 1

The student will have an A average in the class for the semester/year

Student will have no more than 14 absences, tardies, or early dismissals from an individual class (excused or unexcused)

Note – if the student is on a field trip – the day does NOT count into the absences for exemption.

Note – If the student is tardy to class due to another teacher holding them (must have a pass) or a bus coming in late, it does not count against them.

Teachers will be responsible for maintaining accurate period attendance.

Option 2

The student will have a B average in the class for the semester/year

Student will have no more than 8 absences, tardies, or early dismissals from an individual class (excused of unexcused)

Note – if the student is on a field trip – the day does NOT count into the absences for exemption.

Note – If the student is tardy to class due to another teacher holding them (must have a pass) or a bus coming in late, it does not count against them.

Teachers will be responsible for maintaining accurate period attendance.